

Grace Olcese – Escrow Officer

Grace continues to enjoy her career in escrow, which began in 1976, and proud to say she eventually acquired approval from the Department of Corporations as a Manager. Throughout her many years of experience, she emphasizes the fact that customers are the most important focal point in every transaction. She is well educated and has a broad understanding of the escrow industry. She shares her knowledge with both her clients and co-workers. She has a positive attitude and patient demeanor, which helps with customer satisfaction. She believes her most important accomplishment every day is to help the customer receive caring service and attention, allowing her to complete her day with a smile.