

Lori Carhart – Escrow Officer

Lori has been a successful escrow officer since 1985. In this career she has found a true fit for her personality because everyone she works with describes her as a "people person" in every way. She loves taking the time to help her customers navigate through the sometimes intimidating escrow experience. By keeping the purchasers and their agents fully informed and "in the loop" at all times, Lori believes her purpose to make sure her customers are happy and satisfied is achieved. From the positive feedback, we know she is right.
